

When You Pray

Listen to this prayer of mine, GOD; pay attention to what I'm asking. Answer me – you're famous for your answers! Do what's right for me...Hurry with your answer, GOD! I'm nearly at the end of my rope. Don't turn away; don't ignore me! That would be certain death. If you wake me each morning with the sound of your loving voice, I'll go to sleep each night trusting in you.

Point out the road I must travel; I'm all ears, all eyes before you. Save me from my enemies, GOD – you're my only hope! Teach me how to live to please you, because you're my God. Lead me by your blessed Spirit into cleared and level pastureland.

Psalms 143: 1; 7-10

Prayer does not deal with a capricious God. It is a technique for achieving unity with God and His limitless life, substance, and intelligence.

Prayer is not something we do to God but to ourselves.

It is not a position but a disposition.

It Is not flattery but a sense of oneness.

It is not asking but knowing.

It is not words but feeling.

It is not will but willingness.

- Eric Butterworth

There is purpose in prayer. There are promises in prayer. And through prayer, there is a presence of peace.

Upon completing your prayers, do your eyes see what God views, do your ears hear what the Father speaks, and does your heart feel that Master's touch?
